

The Brooklyn Waterfront Research Center (BWRC) presents

POWER PLANTS SEX SHOPS INDUSTRIAL ZONES AND OPEN SPACE:

THE POLITICS OF A SUSTAINABLE WORKING WATERFRONT

Sunset Park’s waterfront remains one of the city’s largest industrial clusters. Scarred by the Gowanus Expressway and various noxious uses, the waterfront is now undergoing a renaissance centered on creative industries and artisanal manufacturing. This talk will discuss how Sunset Park’s waterfront revitalization is a testing ground for Mayor de Blasio’s vision of an inclusive urbanism.
